Indicative Timeframes

If the product you require doesn’t appear in the table above, it means that it doesn’t run on a set schedule and we produce that stock when we have the volume of orders gang together economically. These products will generally be completed within 5 working days and we will try to accommodate any dispatch dates you request in the order notes. Please read the order confirmation email to check your estimated dispatch date and contact customer support if that timeframe will not work for you. We will advise what other options you have to complete your order by the specified date.

Here is some indicative timeframes for products you might order from us:
